WPSS_3(T-A)_2000

(Old No. 2551 of 1995)

Hon'ble P.C. Verma, J

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The grievance of the petitioner is that the petitioner has been left out, while his juniors have been considered for promotion and they have been given promotion.

The learned standing counsel has not denied this fact in the counter affidavit. Therefore, the writ petition is disposed of with the direction that the case of the petitioner shall also be considered, if any person junior to him has been promoted and the petitioner shall be given promotion from the date when his juniors have been promoted. The petitioner shall also be given consequential benefit.
